THE CITY.

Peter Adam was tried in the police court yesterday for stealing $28.20 from the pockets of Mike Murphy while the latter was asleep.

In case of Harrison's election, George Mills will win about $7,000. Fen Gridley will also be a large winner, probably to the extent of $2,000. Captain Wood, of the fire department, while walking along Jackson street in the vicinity of Eighteenth Wednesday evening, sprained his ankle and will be confined to his home for some length of

The fire department was called out Tuesday night to Mercer avenue, near Fortieth street, where a blaze was discovered in the hall of the Hertzman block. The damage amounted to about $50.

Lou. Boyd, who was arrested in Council Bluffs Monday afternoon for complicity in a burglary that was committed in that city Sunday evening, was released from custody yesterday after being completely exonorated. It was purely a case of mistaken identity.

A Small Blaze. A small fire occurred at the corner of Tenth and Castellar about 8:30 yesterday The damage was slight. The cottage was oc cupied by Mrs. Ryan and was one of the pieces of property lately willed by Mrs. Creighton to the St. Joseph's hospital.

Failed.

Louis Ginzberg, dealer in dry goods and notions, was close by importunate creditors yesterday. Chattel mortgages for $12,000 were filed. They are chiefly in favor of Chicago houses and the Omaha National bank. The assets are estimated at $15,000, with liabilities of $25,000.

Caught in the Slot

A horse belonging to Charles Baker, was injured in a terrible way yesterday by getting the calk of one of his shoes caught in the cable slot, at 15th and Harney. The poor beast's fright and plunging was the cause of his hoof being nearly torn off. The animal will have to be killed, and Mr. Baker can illy afford the loss as he is a poor man.

Caught With a Stolen Coat. A negro named Charles Davis was caught by Officer Savage in a Tenth street pawn shop trying to dispose of an overcoat which he believed was stolen. He sent the darkey to the lockup and later W. Ramey, of the Millard hotel, identified the coat as his property and said it was stolen from him yesterday. Davis says the garment was given to him by another colored man who wished to have it pawaed, and he was not aware it was stolen.

Mysterious Disappearance. George Waddell, who lives at Orchard Hill, lett home Tuesday morning and has not been seen since. He had about $100 m his pocket at the time and foul play is feared. He has been a man of regular habits and has never been known to stay away from home such a length of time without giving his wife previous notice that he was to be detained. Mrs. Waddell is greatly distracted over the mysterious disappearance of her husband, and has left a description of him at police head quarters.

Found Dead.

A stranger, a man about thirty-five years of age, well dressed and good looking, was found dead in bed at the lodging house of J. P. Henderson, 709 North Sixteenth street, yesterday. He was taken to the boarding house by another stranger, who said he was drunk, and paying 25 cents for his lodging told the landlord to put him to bed, and left and has not been heard of since. In the morning the man was found dead. He is supposed to have been a railroad switchman, and was out jollifying Tuesday night. He had evidently been in a fight, as his face was bruised and one eye blackened.

Driven Into the River and Drowned. John Zeis, living near Valley, entrusted a valuable mule team Tuesday morning to a strange man he had recently hired. The fellow failed to return at the expected time, and Zeis notified neighboring sheriffs by wire to be on the look out for the property, which be concluded had been stolen. In the evening, however, the whole outfit was found in the Elkhorn river north of Valley. The mules were drowned. It is supposed the hired man became drunk and accidentally drove into a deep hole in the river. He decamped, and was last seen making towards Fremont. The mules were valued Delinquent Taxes.

For thirty days past there have been few if any burier offices in the state than that of City Treasurer Rush. It has been crowded with people constantly, and the work has kept the office force on the go far into many a night. The unusual rush was caused by the advertisement in THE BEE a month ago of an enormous number of delinquent taxes. The list filled twelve pages of THE BEE, and contained over 20,000 descriptions. There are between 90,000 and 100,000 descriptions on the tax books, so that the delinquencies averaged more than one in every five. This state of affairs is readily accounted for, and came about very naturally. The unpaid taxes are usually on property in the suburbs that was brought into the city last year. Manyowners had an idea that there would be no city tax for 1887 and paid no attention to the matter. Thousands of lots in the suburbs have been bought on contract. The buyers thought the taxes would be paid by the holders of the titles, would be paid by the holders of the titles, but the sellers shrewedly had a clause in their contracts binding the buyer to pay the taxes from the date of the bargain. It would seem that the average man considers the minor conditions of a real estate deal rather indifferently. But by far the greater number of delinquents were caused by the new law, which requires the payment of city taxes before July 1, which is six months earlier than formerly. Property owners in the suburbs were not posted, apparently, on the new order of things, and the tax list in The Bre took them by surprise.

The delinquent list is a big one, but the property in question is of such low value that the aggregate of unpaid taxes is a small amount compared to what it might be supposed to be. The taxes have been paid on constituted of the property in reservery.

posed to be. The taxes have been paid on one-third of the pieces of property adver-tised and the money collected thereby is about one-half of the whole sum delinquent. F Pears' soap is the most elegant toilet the Election. In the district court yesterday Judge Wakeley resumed the hearing of that old chestnut, Hoagland vs Van Etten..

THE COURTS. Business Resumed in Earnest After

In the following suits for judgment on secured but defaulted notes the court entered decrees for the plaintiffs: For Edward G. Glenn against the Western Land and Invest ment company, $935 and interest; Nebraska Savings bank against Maurice S. Bartlett, $1.066.66 and interest; New England Loan and Trust company against Dennis Cunningham, Julius C. Her and Michael Hess, $2,231.32 and interest; Thomas Brennan and Constantine J. Smyth against John Lacourse and Elise Allstrom, $1,585.98 and interest. The jury in the case of Samuel Cowen against Joseph Ferguson, in an action to recover damages for defamation of character, late yesterday afternoon, refurned a verdict of 5 cents damages. John L. Miles et al. have brought suit Bgainst James B. Henzes et al: to foreclose a mortgage on certain property to satisfy a claim of $600.

Mary C. Wilburn has filed a petition for a divorce from John Wilburn on the grounds of cruel treatment and drunkenness. They have been married eight years.

The following prisoners will be arraigned before Judge Groff this morning to make their plea: James Bond, robbery; Ben Graus, receiving stolen goods; Albert Smith, grand larceny; Dick Davis, robbery; Robert Ferguson, forgery; Al Petty, burglary; George Withing and John Willis, receiving stolen property.

County Court.
The will of Charles J. Ryan was filed with the county court yesterday. The residue of the estate, real and personal, is left to his grand children, the progeny of J. B. J. Ryan and wife, to share alike, the same to be used in their maintenance. John R. Shaw and Mrs. J. B. J. Ryan are appointed executor and executive of the instrument. The hearing will be had Saturday.

Our charming countrywomen are not only acknowledged to be among the lovliest of their sex, but capital cooks. They declare unanimously that Van Duzer's Flavoring Extracts are the only ones that impart to pies, puddings, cakes, etc., the genuine flavor. Why? Because they are made from the finest fruit, without any doubtful aid from cheap and hurtful chemicals used to simulate the real taste. Grocers everywhere sell these extracts.

AN ILLEGAL VOTE.

A Misunderstanding Leads to the Casting of a Spurious Ballot. Lew Pederson, a young Swede aged twenty-two years, is lying in the central police station on the charge of illegal voting. B. R. Rothberger, a man well known in Walnut Hill, is in custody also on the charge of being accessory to the illegal vote cast by Peterson.

Both were interviewed in their cells by a BEE reporter yesterday, and it appears from their stories that the illegal vote was the result of a misunderstanding. Pederson and Rothberger have known each for some time, and the latter gentleman supposed that Pederson was a legal voter, but it has since developed that he has not been naturalsince developed that he has not been naturalized. Pederson seems to have confounded the acts of taking out naturalization papers and that of registering, and when he met Rothberger Tuesday, while that gentleman was on his way to the polls, he was asked if he had voted. He repited that he could not, as he had not been "registered" yet, meaning that he had not yet been naturalized. Rothberger assured that it was not necessary to be registered in the state of Nebraska, and on this assurance Pederson voted. Both parties disclaim the intention of any fraud. On arraignment both prisoners asked fraud. On arraignment both prisoners asked for a continuance until Thursday at 3 p. m. and this was granted.

SMALLPOX IN OMAHA. Mr. Bay Prostrated With the Fatal

Scourge. There is a case of smallpox in Omaha, but the board of health is doing all in its power to quarantine the case, and keep the terrible epidemic from being communicated to other persons in the city. The unfortunate man prostrated is William H. Bay, an engineer on the Union Pacific railroad, and he was exposed to the disease on one of his late trips. He is living 1818 North Twenty-fifth street. The case was discovered Tuesday evening and reported to City Physician Ralph, who immediately summoned the other members of the board of health and measures were adopted to keep the malady from spreading. The house in which Bay is living is declared in quarantine and is to be placarded with a large piece of card board on which the emblazoned letters "smallpox" can be seen nearly a block. Nobody is to be allowed to visit the house except physi-cians and nobody but gentlemen of the same The people in the vicinity of the house in which Bay is lying sick are greatly alarmed, and physicians with vaccine have been in demand all day.

WEAR MEN! Debilitated three CONTROL OF STREET OF STREE

Next to the presidential contest has created more excitement than our great Overcoat sale. It is the talk of the town, and every mail brings us scores of letters from outside ordering Overcoats. We have not said half enough about these garments in our last "Ad." Hundreds of customers praised the Overcoats more than we did, and acknowledged that what they saw outstripped their best expectations.

Of the three special lots advertised last week, two are nearly sold out and the only one we have a fair quantity of, and all sizes yet are the $7.75 SATIN I INED CHINCHILLAS. There isn't anything that will compare with them at double the price in Omaha, and you will say so if you see them.

We propose to keep up this grand Overcoat sale for a while. and to replace the broken lots will add to-day and offer for the coming week three more styles, which we can conscientiously recommend as bargains just as great and unparalelled.

Elegant wide wale woven back cassimere Overcoats in 2 shades, blue and brown, well trimmed and made at $6.00. This is an extraordinary bargain; $6.00 would not pay for the Cloth alone in the garment. We have sold the same Overcoats right here early in the season as a bargain for $10, and they can not be bought elsewhere for less than $12.50 to $15.

A large lot of strictly all wool Chinchilla Overcoats, the Chinchilla made by one of the best mills in the country and warranted Indigo wool dyed, with elegant serge lining and satin sleeve lining at $8. We challenge any reliable Clothing House to produce a like garment for $12. Our price this week is $8.

The third is the bargain of the season. Al ot of rich and velvety Venetians and Elysiums, in beautiful mixtures, lined throughout and sleeves with finest silk; a garment which is not often foundin readymade stores, at $15. You would not have a coat made to order any more if you see these. They are perfect in every respect and a merchant tailor would charge for a similar coat, $50 to $60.

Next week we promise some extraordinary thing in suits and pants Watch our "ad."

Close, economical and intelligent buyers who are judges of qualities and values are doubly welcomed to this great sale.
